A Companion Discussion Guide to

Educated for Liberty by Providence Foundation

Reflection Questions

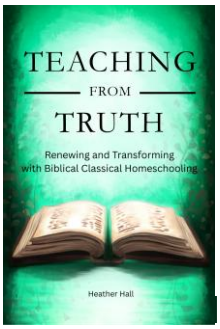
1. What ideas from the film stuck with you the most and why?
2. How did the film challenge or affirm your views on the purpose of education?
3. Which interview or historical insight in the film affected you most, and what about it resonated?
4. In what ways did the film make you reconsider the role of parents and the church in educating children?
5. How has your own experience with education shaped your view of liberty and citizenship?

Reason & Discussion Questions

1. According to the film, how did home-centered biblical education contribute to America's flourishing?
2. The film contrasts secular education with biblical education. What reasons does it give for this contrast, and how persuasive do you find them?
3. What evidence does the film offer about the connection between education and freedom? Is this evidence compelling? Explain.
4. The film argues that restoring biblical education is a solution for societal decline. What practical steps could families or communities take in response to this idea?
5. How does the quote from Harvard's Puritan founders impact you?

Application Questions

1. After watching, what changes (if any) do you feel motivated to make in how you approach education in your family or community?
2. What role do you think the church should play in education, based on the film's message?
3. Why is it essential to guard private and home education freedom?



Coming Soon!

Teaching from Truth:
Renewing and Transforming with Biblical Classical Homeschooling

Big Picture. Small Book. Give your children a thoroughly Christian education.

©2026 PrincipledAcademy.com